- (5) Where an immigration officer has issued a notice to a prohibited immigrant or inadmissible person under this regulation, the immigration officer may, if he deems it fit, issue a copy of such notice to the owner, person in charge or agents of the carrier on or from which the prohibited immigrant or inadmissible person entered, intended or attempted to enter Kenya, and thereafter the owner, person in charge or agents may take such steps as shall be necessary to ensure that the prohibited immigrant or inadmissible person complies with the terms of the notice served on him:

Provided that compliance with the requirements of a notice under this regulation shall not relieve the owner, person in charge or agents of the carrier of his obligations under the Act or any other written law.
- (6) Where a prohibited immigrant or an inadmissible person has been refused permission to enter Kenya, the immigration officer shall issue a notice in Form 39 set out in the First Schedule to the owner, person in charge or agents of the carrier on or from which the prohibited immigrant or inadmissible person entered, intended or attempted to enter Kenya requiring the owner, person in charge or agents of the carrier on or from which the prohibited immigrant or inadmissible person entered, intended or attempted to enter Kenya to take the prohibited immigrant or an inadmissible person into their custody and ensure that the prohibited immigrant or an inadmissible person is removed from Kenya.

37. Payment of expenses

- (1) Where the Government has incurred or is likely to incur any expenses in connection with the detention, maintenance, medical treatment or removal from Kenya of any person or the spouse, children and other dependants under the Act, the Director may issue a notice to the person against whom the expenses have been or are likely to be incurred, the owner or person in charge or agents of the carrier by which the person entered or intended to enter into the country or the surety or other person liable for the expenses demanding the reimbursement, within the period specified in the notice, of the expenses incurred or to be incurred by the Government.
- (2) Where there is default in reimbursement of the expenses incurred by the Government, the Director may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction in that behalf, for an order to recover the expense incurred as a civil debt from the owner, person in charge or agents of the carrier on or from which the person entered, intended or attempted to enter Kenya.
- (3) Any warrant issued under this regulation may be executed in the same manner as a warrant for the recovery of a civil debt and may in the alternative be executed as if it was a warrant for levy of distress in respect of a fine under section 334 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 75).
- (4) The partial recovery of expenses under this regulation shall not prejudice the liability of any surety for the balance, nor shall the issue or execution of a warrant under this regulation be a condition precedent to the liability of a surety.

38. Deposit of security

- (1) The Director may, as a condition precedent to the issue of every permit or pass, require the deposit as security of such amounts as are specified prescribed in the Ninth Schedule to be deposited with the Service in respect of each permit or pass.
- (2) Every deposit may, if necessary, be used to defray any expenses incurred or likely to be incurred by the Government in connection with the detention, maintenance, medical treatment or removal from Kenya of the person in respect of whom the permit or pass was issued and of the spouse(s), children and other dependants, if any.
- (3) Every deposit shall, if not used in the manner referred to in paragraph (2), be refunded to the depositor if the Director is satisfied that—
 - (a) the person in respect of whom the deposit was made and the spouse(s) and children and other dependants, if any, have left or are leaving Kenya permanently;
 - (b) the person in respect of whom the deposit was made and the spouse(s), children and other dependants, if any, are all dead; or
 - (c) retention of the deposit is for any other reason no longer necessary.

39. Security bond

- (1) The Director may, in lieu of requiring a deposit under regulation 38, permit the applicant for a permit or pass or some other person on his behalf, to enter into a bond to provide security, with or without sureties, in a sum as shall be prescribed in the Ninth Schedule in respect of each permit or pass:

Provided that the Director may accept one composite bond in respect of any number of persons so long as the amount of the security provided by such bond does not in aggregate exceed the amount prescribed in the Schedule in respect of each person.
- (2) Regulation 52(2) shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect of any security provided under this regulation.

- (3) A security bond shall be in Form 40 set out in the First Schedule and shall be enforceable until such time as the Director is satisfied that—
- (a) the person in respect of whom the security was given and the spouse, children and other dependants, if any, have left Kenya permanently;
 - (b) the person in respect of whom the security was given and the spouse, children and other dependants, if any, are all dead; or
 - (c) retention of the security is for any other reason no longer necessary.

40. General security covenant

- (1) Where any employer enters or intends to enter into contract a for the employment within Kenya with a person in respect of whom an application required under the Act for the necessary permit and in respect of whose spouse, children and other dependants, applications may be made for dependants' passes, the Director may, in lieu of a deposit or security bond in respect of an employee and the spouse, children and other dependants, if any, permit the employer to enter into a covenant to provide general security in respect of the employee and his or her spouse, children and other dependants, if any, in a sum as shall be prescribed in the Ninth Schedule in respect of each individual.
- (2) A general security covenant shall be in Form 41 set out in the First Schedule.

41. Alteration of security

Where security has been provided under regulation 39, regulation 40 or regulation 41, the Director may at any time accept a security of an alternative nature.

42. Issue of warrant of attachment or security

- (1) A subordinate court of the First Class may, on being satisfied that the security given under any security bond or general security covenant under regulation 39 or regulation 40 has been forfeited, on application being made by the Director, issue a warrant for the attachment and sale of the property belonging to any person or his estate, if such person died after the security was forfeited bound by such security to pay the sum specified in the bond or covenant.
- (2) Any warrant issued under this regulation may be executed in the same manner as a warrant for the execution for a civil debt.
- (3) If sufficient cause is not shown and the forfeited security is not paid, the court may proceed to recover it by issuing a warrant for the attachment and sale of the movable property belonging to that person, or his estate if he is dead.
- (4) A warrant may be executed within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the court which issued it; and it shall authorize the attachment and sale of the movable property belonging to the person without those limits, when endorsed by a magistrate within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the property is found.
- (5) If the security is not paid and cannot be recovered by attachment and sale, the person so bound shall be liable, by order of the court which issued the warrant, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.
- (6) Any person who is aggrieved by a decision of the court made under this regulation may appeal to the High Court.
