MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Statement of objects and reasons of the Bill

The principal object of this Bill is to amend the Constitution to ensure that the membership of the National Assembly and the Senate conforms to the two-thirds gender principle provided for in Article 81(b) of the Constitution. The Bill seeks to give effect to the two-thirds gender principle through the creation of special seats that will ensure that the gender principle is realized in Parliament. The Bill therefore proposes to amend Articles 90, 97 and 98 of the Constitution.

Clause 1 of the Bill is the short title.

Clause 2 is the application clause.

Clause 3 of the Bill proposes to amend Article 90 of the Constitution to reflect the amendments proposed to Articles 97 and 98 of the Constitution.

Clauses 4 and 5 of the Bill proposes to amend Article 97 and 98 of the Constitution to ensure that both Houses of Parliament comply with the two-thirds gender principle that the special seats are allocated proportionate to the number of seats won by a political party. The number of special seats is to be determined after a general election. A sunset clause of twenty-years is included in the amendment with an option for extension for one further fixed period of ten years as it is expected that by that time enormous gains will have been made with regard to gender parity in elected members of Parliament.

Statement on the delegation of legislative powers and limitation of fundamental rights and freedoms

This Bill does not delegate legislative powers nor does it limit any fundamental rights and freedoms.

Statement on how the Bill concerns county governments

This Bill shall require passage by both Houses of Parliament under Article 256 of the Constitution.

Statement as to whether the Bill is a money Bill within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution

The enactment of this Bill shall occasion additional public expenditure.

Dated the 16th June, 2025.
